WHY STUDY ENGLISH FOR TAXI DRIVERS AT UWS COLLEGE?

To be a taxi driver in NSW, candidates must pass the NSW AMES English assessment to meet the National Minimum Standard set by the government.

To help prospective drivers prepare for the exam, UWS College, has developed a short course to help them develop their skills and confidence.

The community program will be held one day a week over three weekends, and will be taught by experienced English language teachers who will help improve participants’ speaking, listening, reading and writing skills.

WHO SHOULD UNDERTAKE THIS COURSE

This course is for:
» people who want to be a taxi driver in NSW
» people who have previously attempted the NSW AMES English assessment for taxi drivers.

COURSE CONTENT

You will:
» be taught by highly skilled and experienced English language teachers in a supportive and relaxed environment
» improve your speaking, listening, reading and writing skills
» gain an understanding of what is in the test
» practice examples of what you will do in the test
» have access to all necessary materials.

If you have previously attempted the English assessment by NSW AMES, please send a copy of your results via mail, email or fax or, alternatively, you may bring a copy to the College in person.
