Extract: Daily Routing Orders by F/O N. J. Loveday, Commanding Course 29B:

BAR DRILL

During recent months it has become apparent that there is need for improvement in the standard bar and quaffing drill maintained in this course, with which I am not too pleased. Accordingly, there will be a parade of members of the course at the perfidious Albion at 1830 hours on Tuesday, 1st December, 1942, to undergo intensive training in keeping the spirit of conviviality uppermost in the minds of all ranks.

Attention is drawn to A P XXXX. I will take a grim view of any members infringing this order.

B. L. POOLE, A/Cpl (unpaid),
Course Captain.

Sunset: Tuesday, 1st December, 1942, 2000 hours
(Eastern Summer Time).

EPILOG

With what regret a man must leave
The realm of Squadron-Leader Reeve!
There Loveday taught to keep logs straight
Or, failing that, to "estimate."
Senior was seldom known to mar
The rhythm of an isobar.
And there we learnt without a hitch
The ships and V.A.I.'s of Ditch:
Not so the thunderstorms, eclipses,
Hydrants and tennis courts of Phipps's.
No passing years away can whisk all
The co-efficients of O'Driscoll,
Nor shall we soon consign to Lethe
The R. cot. Lat. of Abernethy.
Sebastian to prevent mishap
Has safety-pinned his overlap,
And Taylor showed himself no tiro
In handling T.D.S. or gyro.
Remember, too, that sleek Joe Cassidy
Made lectures glib and comments acidy;
That Coota never proved a better place
Than when it gave us C. C. Fetterplace;
While Sergeant Lee's commando cuss
Will always leave its mark on us.
Now in their honor fill the cup,—
And after B.A.G.S. we'll bomb 'em up!
