SOCIAL JUSTICE AND SOCIAL CHANGE RESEARCH (SJSC) would like to invite you to a Public Seminar on The Day of African Independence, with a case study of the Congo Independence Day. Is this a cause for celebration or should it be a day of mourning?

On Wednesday, June 30
At 5:00 pm - 8:00 pm
Official Proceedings starting from 5:30pm
Room 02.G.05 (LT02), Building 2
UWS Bankstown Campus
Bullecourt Ave, Milperra

RSVP: sjsc@uws.edu.au

The Day of African Independence, with a case study of the Congo Independence Day.
Is this a cause for celebration or should it be a day of mourning?

Chair:
Dr Sev Odowski OAM FAIC,
Director, Equity and Diversity
University of Western Sydney

Speakers:
Dr. Debbie Horsfall,
University of Western Sydney
Patrice Nyembo,
President of The Congolese Community of Australia Inc.
Papa Mbuyi and older woman,
Testimonial stories

Seminar Info:
This seminar will focus on human rights, the basic tool of freedom and development. The speakers will look at the experience of some African countries from the day of independence to the present. African countries are approaching 50 years of independence after colonisation. Is it really independence for Africa or “colonisation” in another form?