Panell and Q&A

Can’t eat your house
development threatens food bowl

URBAN SPRAWL in Sydney’s west is encroaching on fertile flood plains. How do we retain our food security at a time of rapid population growth? The Sydney Food Fairness Alliance is organising this panel and Q&A in Western Sydney’s Penrith.

GUEST PANELISTS
• rural planner Ian Sinclair
• Urban Research Centre director Prof. Phillip O’Neill
• WSROC president & councillor Alison McLaren
• NSW Farmers’ Association President Fiona Simson.

MC: Costa Georgiadis of SBS TV show Costa’s Garden Odyssey.

WHEN: Wednesday 26 October 2011
Arrive 7:00pm
7:30pm start, concludes 9:00pm

WHERE: Joan Sutherland
Performing Arts Centre
597 High Street Penrith

COST: $15 or $10 SFFA members/concessions

BOOKINGS: RSVP at info@sydneyfoodfairness.org.au or 0410 145 473
Pick up your tickets at the door.

Light refreshments provided.

Supported by