How do I lodge an application to study at UWS?

Applications are lodged online via the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC). Go to www.uac.edu.au and follow the links to the undergraduate site.

What information do I need to provide?

You must give details of all studies you have undertaken at high school, TAFE/VET or university. You must list all attempts at these studies. This includes complete, incomplete, successful and unsuccessful study attempts.

Do I need to supply any documents with my application?

Some applicants will need to provide supporting documents with their application. You may need to provide proof of English proficiency.

Please refer to Table B in the UAC Guide or on the UAC website www.uac.edu.au for further details.

If you need to provide any documents, you will be asked to print a Document Cover Sheet when you come to the end of your online application. This will detail all of the documents that you need to provide, and the date by which they need to be supplied to UAC. Do not send original documents to UAC as they will not be returned to you. Copies of documents must be correctly certified. Failure to provide the required documents may jeopardise your application.

How do I know if I received an offer?

UAC will notify you by mail about the outcome of your application. UAC may also contact you via email if they require further information about your application. Remember to check your emails regularly.

I don’t have any qualifications, can I still go to uni?

Many of our undergraduate courses accept work experience as an alternative entry basis. Generally you would need at least five years work experience to be competitive for entry to a course if you do not have any educational qualifications.

You need to record details of your work experience on your UAC application and provide a Statement of Service or to verify your employment. Personal references and CVs are not accepted as proof of work experience.
