Internships

Under the University of Western Sydney’s Internship Program, a student who has completed at least half of his/her undergraduate course, or a recent graduate, works for 12 or 24 weeks (or part time equivalent).

Cost to industry

12 weeks
$9,000 (plus GST) per student/graduate payable as follows:
- $4,500 (plus GST) on commencement
- $4,500 (plus GST) on completion.

24 weeks
$18,000 (plus GST) per student/graduate payable as follows:
- $9,000 (plus GST) on commencement
- $9,000 (plus GST) after 12 weeks.

Please note, direct expenses, if incurred, are invoiced separately. A $500 (plus GST) cancellation fee may apply to Internships cancelled after advertising has commenced. Organisations may be eligible for a rebate for multiple Internships.

Duration

12 or 24 weeks (or part time equivalent). The specific dates for the Internship will be negotiated to suit your requirements and the student's/graduate's availability.

Internships can be extended as required.

Selection criteria

- Ability to meet essential and desirable criteria
- Merit of the application submitted
- Academic performance
- Enthusiasm and willingness

Role of the industry partner

- Interview applicants and identify successful candidates
- Provide supervision (academic supervision is not provided as part of this program)
- Identify the work to be undertaken
- Ensure appropriate resources are available
- Provide feedback during the placement and on completion

Insurance

All students are covered by the University of Western Sydney’s Workers Compensation Policy.

Location

Students/graduates usually work at the premises of the industry partner. Depending on the requirements of individual projects, it may be necessary for them to work for short periods at other locations such as libraries, laboratories, fieldwork sites or their home.
